ABELE ANNOUNCES MAJOR EXPANSION OF ONEJET AT MKE

MILWAUKEE (October 3, 2017) – Milwaukee County Executive Chris Abele has announced a major expansion of OneJet at General Mitchell International Airport (MKE), which will include two new nonstop destinations and the addition of a Milwaukee operating base.

The air service announcement includes new nonstop service from MKE to Columbus, Ohio (CMH) and Omaha, Nebraska (OMA) beginning November 1. OneJet currently offers twice-daily service from MKE to Pittsburgh.

“The opening of OneJet’s base of operation at MKE creates jobs and shows that Milwaukee is on the leading edge of this new business model providing nonstop access to important destinations in the Midwest,” County Executive Abele said. “The new service to Columbus and Omaha is outstanding news for travelers who need same-day flights to/from these cities.”

“Milwaukee has proven to be an exceptional market for OneJet service, and this expansion underscores our commitment to bring nonstop service to important markets from MKE,” said Matthew Maguire, OneJet CEO. “We look forward to working with County Executive Abele and the Milwaukee Airport team as we evaluate additional growth in our network.”
