ESCAPE THE POLAR VORTEX WITH WARM WEATHER FLIGHTS FROM MKE

MILWAUKEE (January 30, 2019) – Milwaukee Mitchell International Airport (MKE) is helping travelers escape cold temperatures with nonstop flights to more than a dozen warm weather destinations in the U.S., Mexico and the Caribbean throughout the winter months. Flights are also on sale for the upcoming Spring Break travel period, when MKE will offer as many as 35 nonstop departures to warm weather destinations on a single day.

“This week’s subzero temperatures are brutal, but warm destinations are easy to access from MKE,” Airport Director Brian Dranzik said. “We have plenty of exciting options to help travelers enjoy warmer weather. It’s a perfect time to plan a quick getaway or extended vacation.”
